Employee Spotlight

Courtney has been with the credit union for 3 years. She has recently accepted the position of being our call center representative. Courtney's fun, bubbly, positive assertive attitude will be a great addition to our call center. During her free time she attends to her two children. Courtney is quite innovated and productive and enjoys designing and creating her own sense of style. She has an interest in moving forward in our Member Service and Lending department. Stop by the Main Office and say hello to Courtney!
